PPO family coverage: Unmarried dependent children enrolled with a parent can be covered at the dependent child rate up to age 30. When children no longer qualify for the dependent child rate, they can transition to their own contract on the same product and deductible without having to pass medical underwriting again.

Child-only coverage: Children can be covered without a parent through 18 years. Each child will receive a separate rate based upon his/her age, sex and residence. At age 19, children will transition to an adult contract on the same product and deductible without having to pass medical underwriting.

PPO family coverage: Unmarried dependent children enrolled with a parent can be covered at the dependent child rate up to age 30. When children no longer qualify for the dependent child rate, they can transition to their own contract on the same product and deductible without having to pass medical underwriting again.

Child-only coverage: Children can be covered without a parent through 18 years. Each child will receive a separate rate based upon his/her age, sex and residence. At age 19, children will transition to an adult contract on the same product and deductible without having to pass medical underwriting.

HMO Family coverage: Unmarried dependent children enrolled with a parent can be covered at the dependent child rate up to age 30. Whether you're applying for family coverage or for child-only coverage, each individual family member will receive a separate rate based upon his/her age, sex and residence. When children no longer qualify as a dependent, they can transition to their own contract on the same product without having to pass medical underwriting again.

Note: These are the BlueSecure standard rates. You may be assigned a non-standard rate based upon the results of the medical underwriting process. A non-standard rate is higher than the standard rate.
